

Chloe News

CHLOE

Good evening, here are the top stories tonight:

For news in Luton, thirty eight year old Corene (co-reen) Campbell, from one of a hundred people chosen, to judge a new singing show called all together now. Luton today did an interview with Campbell where she said "I really enjoyed being a part of the show and it was great to be a judge with some amazing singers and professionals. Her first TV appearance was on the first season of x-factor in 2004. Altogether now will presented by former Spice Girl Geri Horner.

In other news, Piers Morgan got the chance to interview with Donald Trump. The US president talked about his visit to the UK and his love for Scotland. He said he wants to create a "good" relationship with the UK. In his wide-ranging interview he also discussed his thoughts on climate change, tackling Isis and his hopes that Prince Harry and Megan Markle have a happy marriage.

and in Celebrity news, two nights ago saw the biggest show biz event of the year, the grammy awards. Bruno Mars won record of the year with his song twenty four carrot magic. Kesha fans lash out at double winner Ed Sheeran as he scoops up two awards at the Grammys... but is no where to be seen. Yet the next day Sheeran, posted to Instagram a picture of his cat thanking fans for his winnings. Miley Cyrus sings with Sir Elton John at the Grammys. Katie Holmes, Rita Ora and Miley are bombshells in black as they lead best dressed on the Grammy Awards red carpet.

Singer Kesha gave a heartfelt performance about her rape story, Rihanna, Camilla Cabello and Cyndi Lauper accompanied the performance and settled Kesha as she cried on stage.

Thats all for now, your up to date on Barnfield Radio